OFFICE SO. BAST CORNER PUBLIC SQUARE— UP STATES. TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

Four Dollars per Annum, Invariably in Advance.

PULASKI TENN. FRIDAY MORNING, AUGUST 24, 1866

Wheat Wanted. Wanted, immediately 1,000 bushels good merchantable Wheat, for which the market price will be paid on delivery.

Also, 500 Bushels Dried Peaches. J. D. FLAUTT & Co. Aug. 3-3t CROSS MARKS (X.) Look out for cross marks on your paper. This indicates the expiration of your subscription. We advance. We hope you will renew without delay. Sr. CECILA .- We ask attention to the advertisement of this well-known school.

Look Here Boys.

We want a carrier-boy-a lad who can read writing-to deliver the paper to town subscribers. For a faithful, prompt lad we will pay liberally, besides giving him the benefit of a carrier's address christmas, if we should keep him until that time.

Or we would take a boy fourteen or fifteen years of age to learn the printing business. Apply early.

but not dangerously injuring him. No arrests were made by corporate officers.

Another Fight.-There was a fisticust on Monday last between Mr. Stewart, the madler, and Mr. Church, the silver-smith, in which there was some wool-gathering, pomeling and gouging, without much damage to either party. We did not learn the origin of the difficulty.

FIRE .- The Saw Mill of Messrs Reed & Ballentine, situated three miles south-west of town, was destroyed by fire on Wednesday night last, between mid-night and day. About ten thousand feet of lumber was also destroyed, and the engine materially damaged; but the full extent of damage and loss not ascertained. The origin of the fire not known, but supposed to be accidental.

RELIGIOUS .- A series of interesting meetings have been held during the present week, and are yet going on with increasing interest, at the Presbyterian Church, under the able ministration of the Rev. Dr. M. M. Marshall, of Fayetteville. We congratulate our people upon the opportunity thus afforded them to hear once more this eminent and earnest Minister of God.

RAIN .- At last we have had rain -just enough to assure us that in can rain again. We thank Heaven for even this little assurance, and hope now to have more of it soon. Portions of the county had plenty, while others had but little, and some places none, but we feel better from the assurance given us that it has not quit altogether.

EPISCOPAL VISITATION .- Bishop Quin-TARD paid this place a visitation on Sabbath last, and the beautiful, impressive service of the Episcopal Church was witnessed by many of our citizens. The rite of Confirmation was administered to four candidates. The scene was an impressive one, and during the ceremonies great interest was manifested by the large audience in attendance -this being the first time confirmation was ever administered in this place.

JAS. R. CROWE .- Our estimable young friend, whose name heads this paragraph, is now in the employ of Messrs. Stratton, Cheney & Roy, commission merchants of Nashville, and is now canvassing this and adjoining counties to represent the interest said firm. We take pleasure in saying to farmers that both the house and the agent are altogether reliable, and worthy of confidence and patronage.

Mr. Crowe is also the authorized agent for the Cirizen, and contracts made, or receipts given by him, will be honored by us.

Circuit Court.

Circuit Court is now in the third week of the session, and second on the criminal docket. Considering the fact that very little business was done the first week on account of the illness of Judge Campbell, we think the Hon. Judge (Ward), the State's Attorney (Adams), and the legal profession generally, are entitled to great credit for dispatching so much business in so short a space of time. Many cases have been continued, and a great many misdemeanors and unimportant cases otherwise disposed of. The important State cases disposed of are as follows:

Meredien Dabney (colored), charged with Grand Larceny, convicted and sentenoed to penitentiary for seven years. Also on a charge of Petit Larceny, convicted .-Motion in arrest of judgment overruled, and appeal taken to Supreme Court. Lucius Potter (colored), charged with assault and battery with intent to commit Board, including water, towels, lodging, A new trial granted.

Jacob Kannedy (colored), charged with Petit Largeny, found guilty, and sentenced Ros't, Large, Esq'r, old patrons. [july 27 td to penitentiary for one year. A new trial

Henry Bramlett (colored), charged with Grand Larceny. During progress of trial the indictment was lost, and, not having been recorded on the Minutes of the Court, the accused was by technicality of law dis-

Jim Coffee (colored), charged with Grand Larceny. Not guilty, and prisoner discharged. Caleb Cross (colored), charged with assault and battery. Submitted and sentenced to four months imprisonment in county

Bob Smith (colored), charged with Petit Larceny. Submitted, and sentenced to penitentiary for two years. It is universally conceded that to the efficiency and ability of the Attorney General, pro tem, is mainly attributable the dispatch with which the criminal docket has are compelled to adhere to our rule of payment in thus far been disposed of.

MRS. DR. BATTE'S SCHOOL .- We direct attention to the advertisement of another female school in Pulaski. Mrs. B. is well known as an instructress of experience and capability, and we hope to see her school liberally patronized.

PRISONER ESCAPED .- JACK BARNES, a prisoner under indictment for horse theft and the murder of LEE GRANT, about eighteen months ago, made his escape from custody on Tuesday night last. Circuit Court being in session, the State prisoners had been brought down from Columbia jail, RENCONTRE.-A rencontre occurred on and were under guard in one of the large the street last Saturday morning between | halls in the Court House. Barnes managed Mr. Henry White and Mr. David Holt, in | to sever a link of the chain which bound which the latter received a severe blow him by the use of a chair-round, and then across the head with a gun in the hands of silently made his exit from one of the upthe former, prostrating him to the ground, stair windows, still wearing his shackles. All the prisoners, three officers and Barnes' wife were in the room at the time. His escape was not discovered until it was too late to overtake him.

W. H. Russzll, correspondent of the London Times, with the Austrian army, receives a salary of $500 a month and his expenses. Mr. Hosea, correspondent of the same journal, at Prussian headquarters, has $400 a month and expenses.

CEDAR BLUFF FEMALE COLLEGE.

THE members of the community in which the College is located are sufficiently acquainted with its history, progress and prospects. A brief statement, however, may be required for the benefit of those whose residence is more remote. The College is three miles South-east of Woodburn, a village on the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, midway between Bowling Green and Franklin, Ky. It is sitnated upon a high point of ground, commanding a cturesque and beautiful prospect, in a remarkably are quiet and freedom from all disturbing causes abundantly supplied with pure water and comprising all the facilities for exercise and enjoyment pertain-ing to country life. The healthfulness, morality, interprise and advancement of the Institution are fully established. As it has increased in public favor more extensive accommodations were demanded, the buildings have therefore been enlarged, and an additional number of boarders can be received and accommodated. The discipline is mild, yet thorough and decisive. The law of kindness is the law of the Institute, and no harsh or extreme meas-ures will ever be resorted to, unless the conduct of the oupil should require such a course. But in no case will a member be permitted to remain, who is ungovernable, or whose influence on her companions njurious. The penalties are: Admonition and is injurious. The penalties are: Admonition and reproof, suspension for repeated offences, and expulsion in the last extremity.

It is the purpose of the Faculty to promote a thorough, rather than a superficial education, and to give careful attention to proper exercise and recreation on the part of the pupils, that health may not suffer while the mind is profited, and it is also an important chiest while and avering to increase the mental tant object while indeavoring to increase the mental vigor of the pupils, and add to their stores of knowledge, to cultivate that grace of manner, propriety of taste, and amiability of disposition, which characterize well brod and well informed ladies, and which will entitle them to the respect of refined and cultivated society.

The family and teachers reside in the same building with the pupils. This favors the exercise of that care and solicitude of which young ladies should not be deprived while absent f. om the parental roof. The school is strictly select which effectually prepublic schools. All the boarders are considered amembers of the family and as such are cared for and controlled. For the ensuing term the number of pupils will be limited to fifty.

Regulations for Boarding Pupils. The rooms of the young ladies are furnished, and upplied with water, fuel and lights; but they are quired to keep them eleanly and in good order. The pupils are required to prepare lessons during the appointed hours, at night and morning.

The signal for retiring is given at half past nine o'clock r. m. Thirty minutes after that time, no lights are permitted in the rooms.

In the morning all are required to rise at the ringing of the bell.

The young ladies are not permitted to attend du-The young ladies are not permitted to attend du-The young ladies are not permitted to attend during the session, any party or place of amusement, incompatible with habits of study; to receive the attentions of young gentlemen while they remain members of the institution; to visit any stores or confectioneries without being accompanied by their teachers or parents; to open accounts at any store without written permission from their parents or guardians; to leave the college premises without being accompanied by a teacher or some relative of their own family. Day pupils are required to bring a note in case of absence, tardiness, or when permission is desired to leave before the regular time, to leave the institution in a quiet and orderly man-government of the Institution. No deducti made in board or tuition for voluntary absence. Sessions. The scholastic year commences on the first Menday in September, and is divided into two sessions of twenty weeks each, without any intervening vacation; thus giving a term of forty weeks, and affording an ample vacation in the hot season of the year.
